Q&A WITH MIKE

What do you enjoy most about being a shuttle driver?

"It's great because I'm always on the move and I get to meet tons of interesting people throughout the day."

Can you share one of your most memorable experiences on the job?

"Yeah, I once got to pick up a very high-profile politician. That very was memorable."

What's your secret to being a great shuttle driver?

"Just being friendly and staying in a good mood. I make sure to bring smiles and laughter to my passengers."

When you're not behind the wheel, what do you enjoy doing in your free time?

"I love taking long drives to soak up God's beauty in the different landscapes and terrains of our country. Besides that, you might find me fishing or getting lost in a good book."

What strategies do you use to navigate through heavy traffic and construction zones?

Patience and alertness are key. Sometimes I have to find a different route, but I always manage."

Finally, what message would you like to share with our customers?

"Thanks for riding with AWG Ambassador! We work hard and do our best to ensure you have the most enjoyable rides in Las Vegas."
